

CER & Presentation Rubric

Lesson 4

	POINTS
	0	1	2
Claim	The claim is incorrect or missing.	The claim is accurate but incomplete.	The claim is accurate and complete.
Evidence	Evidence is not provided, or evidence is incorrect.	Some evidence is provided but not enough to support the claim.	Evidence provides adequate support for the claim.
Reasoning	Reasoning is not provided, or reasoning is incorrect.	Some reasoning is provided but not enough to explain the evidence fully.	Reasoning provides an adequate explanation of the evidence.
Solution	No solution is provided or solution does not match the problem.	A solution is provided, but it is inadequate or lacks a demonstrated understanding of the problem.	A thoughtful solution is provided, that demonstrates an understanding of the problem.
Presentation	No group members were able to clearly explain the group's ideas.	Presentation of ideas was sometimes hard to follow.	Presentation of ideas was clear and easy to follow.
Participation during presentations	Group members were not participating or courteous during presentations and giving feedback.	Group members were mostly participating and courteous during listening and giving feedback, but needed some redirection.	Group members overall actively and courteously participated in listening and giving feedback to peers.
Comments:
Score:	/12		